NC 4-H Camping

Through their cabin experiences, 4-H campers gain a sense of community, shared values, contribution, commitment, and compassion with peers from diverse backgrounds. On a hike, they connect with the natural world in which they live, without the influence of computers, television or movie screens. They experience growth by taking healthy risks and stepping outside their comfort zones.

By building character, they become more competent and caring. Campers learn to resolve conflicts, value diversity and to share in the success of the group. Fun becomes the foundation on which courage, self-respect, cooperation and leadership are built.

JOIN THE REVOLUTION OF RESPONSIBILITY

Each year, over 8,000 North Carolina 4-H campers take home increased confidence and leadership abilities, better problem-solving skills and friendships that last a lifetime. We've even started hosting day camps for the communities we serve.

All North Carolina 4-H Camps operate under the accreditation guidelines of the American Camp Association.
